Woodward and the Gubernatorial Contest in Pennsylvania On our first page we print a letter from one of our ablest citizens in regard to the record of Mr. Justice Woodward. The facts it states every man should remember. They cannot be contradicted, and their meaning cannot be misunderstood. We earnestly endorse the argument of our correspondent, and would especially recommend it to the supporters of Judge Woodward. Many of them cannot fail to perceive its force and truth, and not a few will be convinced that his election will be injurious to the highest interests of the country. To produce more than this commendatory notice in connection with your request, as a justification for the publication of the letter in the present form would be useless. I have taken, however, the liberty of adding another letter which I have recently addressed to Mr. Woodward, and which I trust you will find, in all respects, equal to the one which called forth your request. If time and other engagements permits, I may add to these letters one or two others. The fact is, the more thoroughly the principles and opinions of Mr. Woodward are examined, the more profound becomes the conviction of his unfitness for the position to which he aspires.
