Holy Marys--saw ye then, How they came with armed men? Heard, as through a wilderness. Heavy footsteps near you press? 3 Whose the tomb? For whom? they cry, As their torches blaze on high; Come we, lest the dead should stir--Sentries round a sepulchre? 4 Tell them tis the royal bed Where a conqueror lays his head: Tis the rest of David s son; Tis the couch of Solomon! THE SEPULCHRE. 5 By these signs of pillar d smoke. Learn of what the prophet spoke; For the funeral lights ye bear, Fume with spice and incense rare. 6. Let the glorious Victor sleep, Threescore guards his state shall keep, Posted round, a goodly sight, Sword on thigh, through all the night. 7 Roman guards, expert in war, Israel s too, not less ye are: If--...
