Commonsense Guide to Current Affairs: The Issues We Read and Hear about Every Day from the Standpoint of What the Politicians Have Forgotten--Common Sense

By Vincent Frank Bedogne, Marcy Jean Everest

Wipf Stock Publishers, United States, 2009. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 226 x 150 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Description: From clones, family, abortion, terrorism, and the concept of the collective to economics, nuclear power, cap and trade, renewable energy, and the politics of climate change, Everest and Bedogne do something much needed and remarkably absent in today's media. They strip away the layers of liberal and conservative ideology to look at the most talked about topics of our time from the standpoint of what the politicians have forgotten--common sense. Brought to light by logic, history, and science, the book filters the issues that in today's world every citizen, student, and educator needs to understand through what we know to be sound--that which we have gained through our day-to-day trials--our all-too-often repressed ability to see things in a practical and matter-of-fact way. Endorsements: On issues ranging from economics and healthcare to environmental policy and an energy plan for America, this book made me think, which kind of screwed up my plans for an entire week. Thank you. --Thomas W. Pyle Southern Oregon University The book addresses terrorism as a tactic employed by groups...
