OCLC Number: (OCoLC)174039467 Subject: Information storage and retrieval systems -- United States -- Costs. Excerpt: . . . category of Program Office Operations ; the Air Force officials noted that they estimated civilian personnel costs under four other categories; and Washington Headquarters Services officials stated that they did not estimate their NSPS design and implementation costs in any of the eight categories. Without comparable cost estimates, DOD and congressional decision makers cannot contrast and compare or otherwise evaluate NSPS implementation costs across the various DOD components. The total amount of funds DOD has expended or obligated to design and Total Funds implement NSPS during fiscal years 2005 through 2006 cannot be Expended or determined because DOD has not established an effective oversight mechanism to ensure that all these costs are fully captured. In May 2005, Obligated to Design the NSPS Senior Executive established guidance intended to provide the and Implement NSPS PEO with visibility over NSPS expenditures. The guidance requires the components to develop appropriate mechanisms to capture these costs Cannot Be within their official appropriation accounting systems and allows them Determined flexibility to establish the desired level of specificity to track NSPS costs - such as a job order number and cost account code - provided the established mechanism allows complete visibility of all costs. In addition, the guidance requires the components to submit reports quarterly of their NSPS obligations to the NSPS PEO. This guidance does not, however, define the direct and indirect costs that DOD requires the components to capture. Our prior work on DODs financial and related business management and systems has revealed pervasive deficiencies that affect its ability to control costs; ensure basic accountability; anticipate future costs and claims on the...
