General Accounting Office, 2000 OCLC Number: (OCoLC)55668602 Subject: Pharmaceutical industry -- United States. Excerpt: . . . Many programs said they require information about the patients income and drug and health insurance status to determine eligibility for assistance ( see table 3 ). Some programs reported that they request other information from the applicant and most programs said they require a physicians name and signature. Almost half of the programs reported that they rely solely on the health care provider to validate the patients information, while 31 programs said that the patient must provide some type of documentation to support the information on the application. For example, some programs require documentation of the patients income, such as a tax return, or require documentation that the patient is ineligible for public programs such as Medicaid.
