Excerpt: . . . 11 soon on how we might encourage more girls to stick with math and science studies through high school, college and beyond, since attrition occurs at every step along the way. I thank all of the witnesses for being here today and I look forward to your testimony. Chairman B. And at this point, I will recognize my dear AIRD friend and colleague Dr. Ehlers. I think we have been joined by Ralph Hall, the senior Member of our committee. Ralph, thank you for joining us. Dr. Ehlers Mr. E. Thank you, Mr. Chairman, thank you very much for HLERS holding this hearing. It is a very important topic. Understanding the difficulties that female faculty faces is challenging. The climate is changing, but it is still an uphill battle to get faculty of either gender to have frank conversations about this historically...
