Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Domestic Violence Narrative Memoir In 1987 Sara Niles was forced to flee for her life from her abusive husband, an obsessed homicidal psychopath with her five small children in tow during a cold February thunderstorm. From the author: In the process of my evolution, I became a victim of domestic war, an emotional casualty for a major portion of my life, entwined, entrapped and emotionally involved, until I learned how to become free. Freedom has never been easily gained and has often come at high cost throughout history, but one thing I will always know is freedom is worth every fight, and all pain In every life there is a timeless and unforgettable minute or day that will be forever etched into our mind s memory. I have unforgettable memories that are so vivid that I see them in Technicolor, and I hear them with surround sound. Long after I am dead, I believe, I will remember. Two of those memories were the days of my escape to freedom.twice Celebrate the power of the human spirit under fire: Torn From the Inside Out by Sara Niles Excerpt from chapter one: Thunder rattled the window- panes two stories high, and lightning split the sky, it was as if the whole world was in turmoil that night. My nerves were keyed up as tight as piano strings, and in a sudden moment of stillness and silence, it felt as though my heartbeat was amplified ten times over. He was over a hundred pounds greater than I, and nearly a foot taller than I, and I knew he could move his muscled body into unbelievable sprints. Rain started falling in...
