Thorough information! Its this type of great go through. It is amongst the most incredible publication i actually have read through. It is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding, once you begin to read the book.

Outskirts Press, United States, 2010. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Gaylene Frances Clough was my mother s name. Our Lord sent His angels to take her home on July 19th, 2001 at approximately 9:10 p.m. CST, at the young age of 64. She died of lung cancer and liver metastases. I was my mother s primary caregiver during most of her illness. I have been keeping journals for several years. I find it to be therapeutic. I wrote in my journals almost every day of my mother s illness. I thought that it would be beneficial to me and for Mom. I didn t realize, at the time, that I would be using those journals as a basis for a book. So, I apologize if some of my entries seem unprofessional. THE WORDS HEREIN ARE MY WORDS. HONEST. MEAN. SAD.LONELY.FEARFUL.GRATEFUL. My goal, in writing this book, is to hopefully help others who are facing similar situations. During the nine months that I was taking care of my mother, I faced numerous frustrations, anxieties and heartaches. As I attempted to research possible avenues of support (financial and emotional), I began to realize that there were a large number of dead ends and runarounds. My mother had no job, no medical insurance and no money at the time that she was diagnosed. Our family faced quite a few challenges and disappointments, eventually there was some satisfaction and. gratitude. If you are reading this book, you probably have a loved one that has/had cancer or some other deadly disease. My heart goes out to you as you try and find a way to get through this. If my writing helps just one of you - then my work is a...
